"Back in Fashion" Show At Spanner

The Spanner Store at The Shops At Don Mills, in conjunction with Physiotherapy At Don Mills, recently hosted a fashion show with a unique focus. "Back In Fashion" featured updated, stylish versions of compression stockings, and offered suggestions and examples of how to co-ordinate these with wardrobe items to produce a great look that won't compromise one's health. There were also free draws, makeup touch ups, bra fittings, refreshments, and a special line of jewelry was available for purchase at the event. Gita, from Physiotherapy At Don Mills offered information about the stockings and the health implications of using them. For further information, please contact lborcea@physioatdonmills.com.
